Billy,

. . . life styles that reflect one's personality . . .
making high school an individual experience.

How unique is Enid High compared with any other high school?

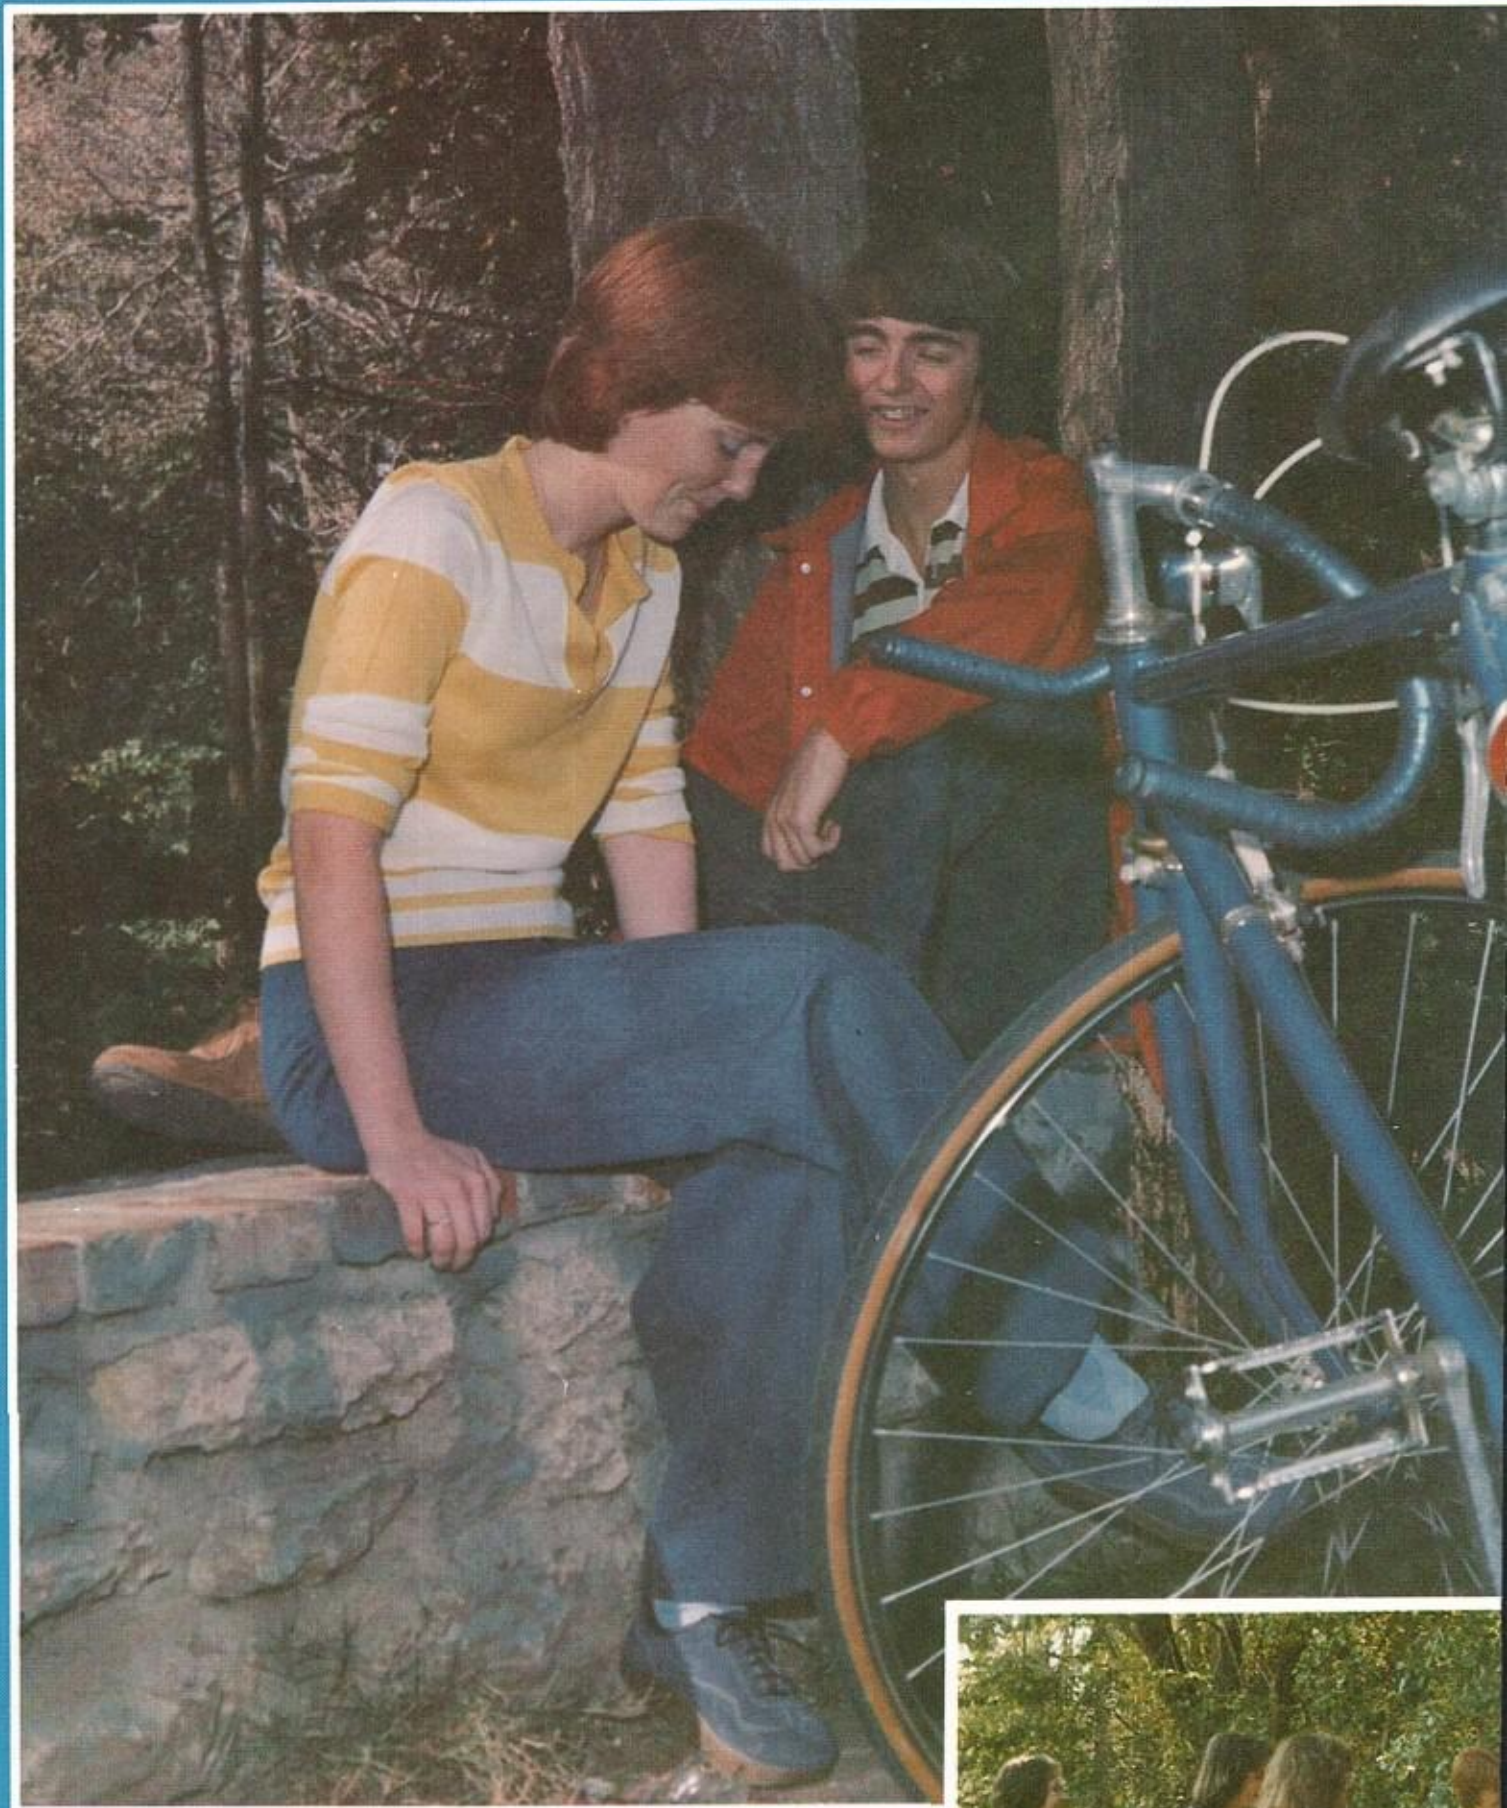

Things like tardy bells, races to lunch, jammed parking lots, pep assemblies, circling the halls, and "VOTE" campaigns are hardly unique.

What makes us unique are the students, teachers, administrators, some 1600 other "individuals" . . . expressing themselves by being part of the crowd, standing out in the crowd . . . avoiding the crowd.

Whether it's a drag that ends at 3:30 each day or a challenge that never ends, it's a time to develop a style that's "you." . . .

Kay - you're a really sweet and cute person that I really just got to know thru you.
You're a really great person, and you have us all you do!

Love,
Dr. '79
Rhonda Blair

Confused dreams, sought-after goals, pent-up pressures — Enid High is an institution that demands respect and dignity and that disciplines some, challenges others to appreciate life with greater perception . . . for some, a fought-for freedom; for others, a frightening future; for most, a question of what to do next.

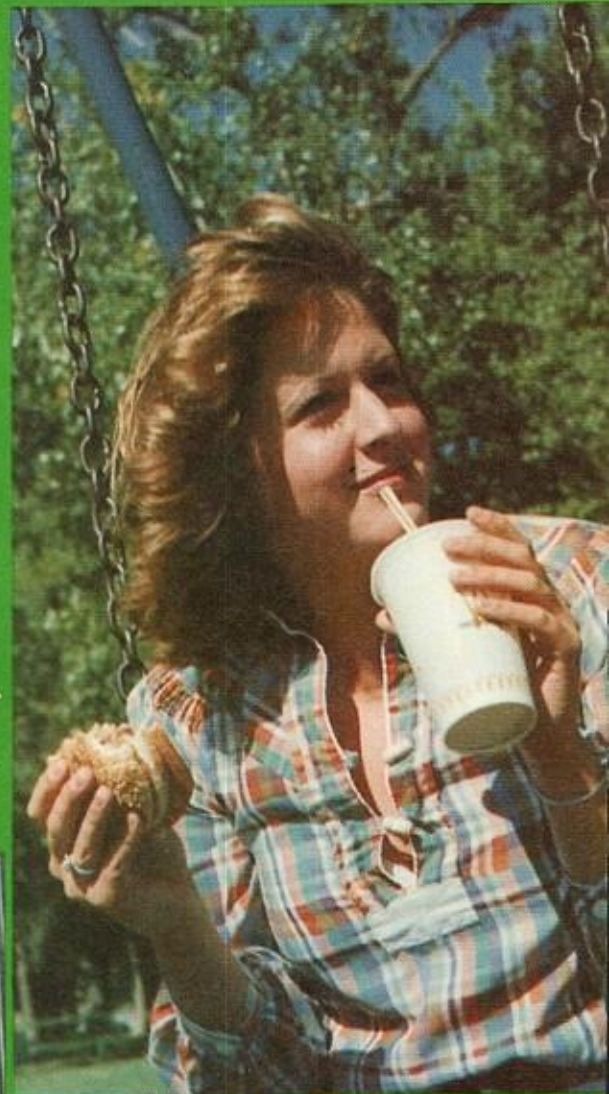

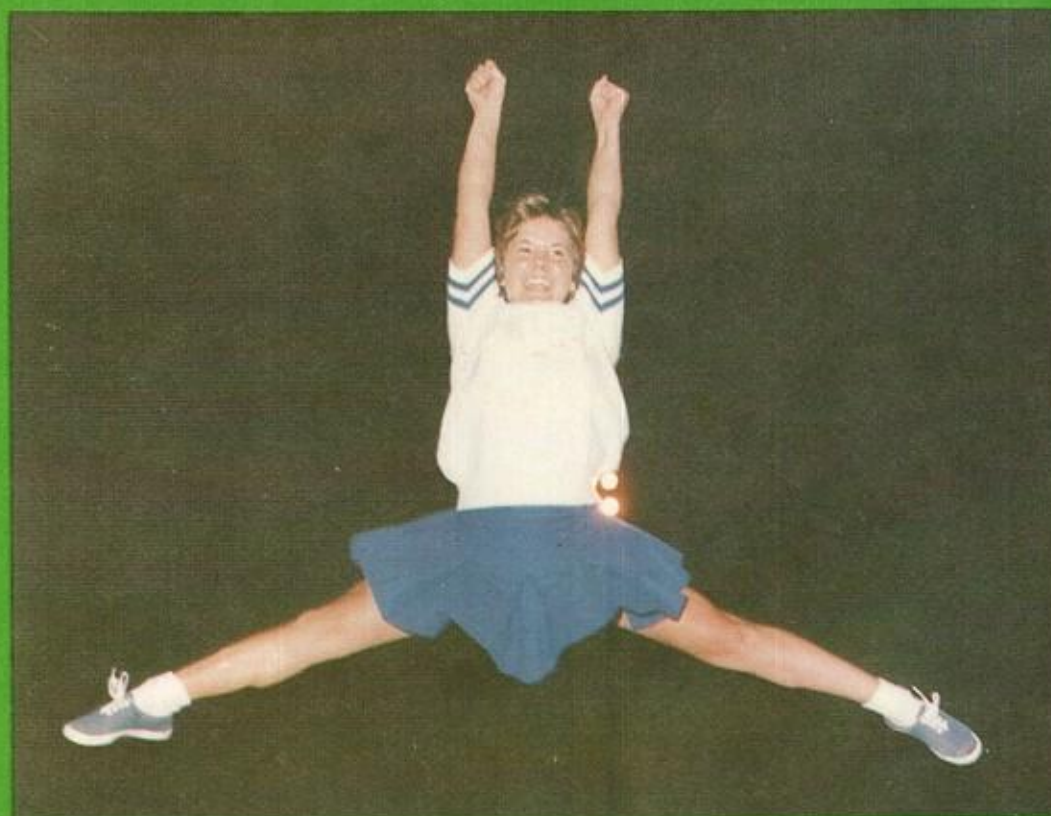

SEVEN HOURS OF SCHOOL . . . SEVENTEEN HOURS OF LEISURE

Where does it go?

For some, it's seven hours of school plus eight hours of working.

For others, extra hours are spent in school related activities . . .

striving . . . participating . . . creating . . . perfecting.

Paul,
I've just known ya for this year,
but I think you're a real neat person! you've got a great personality
& a great sense of humor! Stay the same! Love ya,
Jenny Graham

But for everyone there is some spare time . . . time to share hamburgers with friends, or rise above the crowds with unconquerable spirit . . .

aye. —

I really glad we have got to know each other through these past years. And I hope our Friendship last along time.

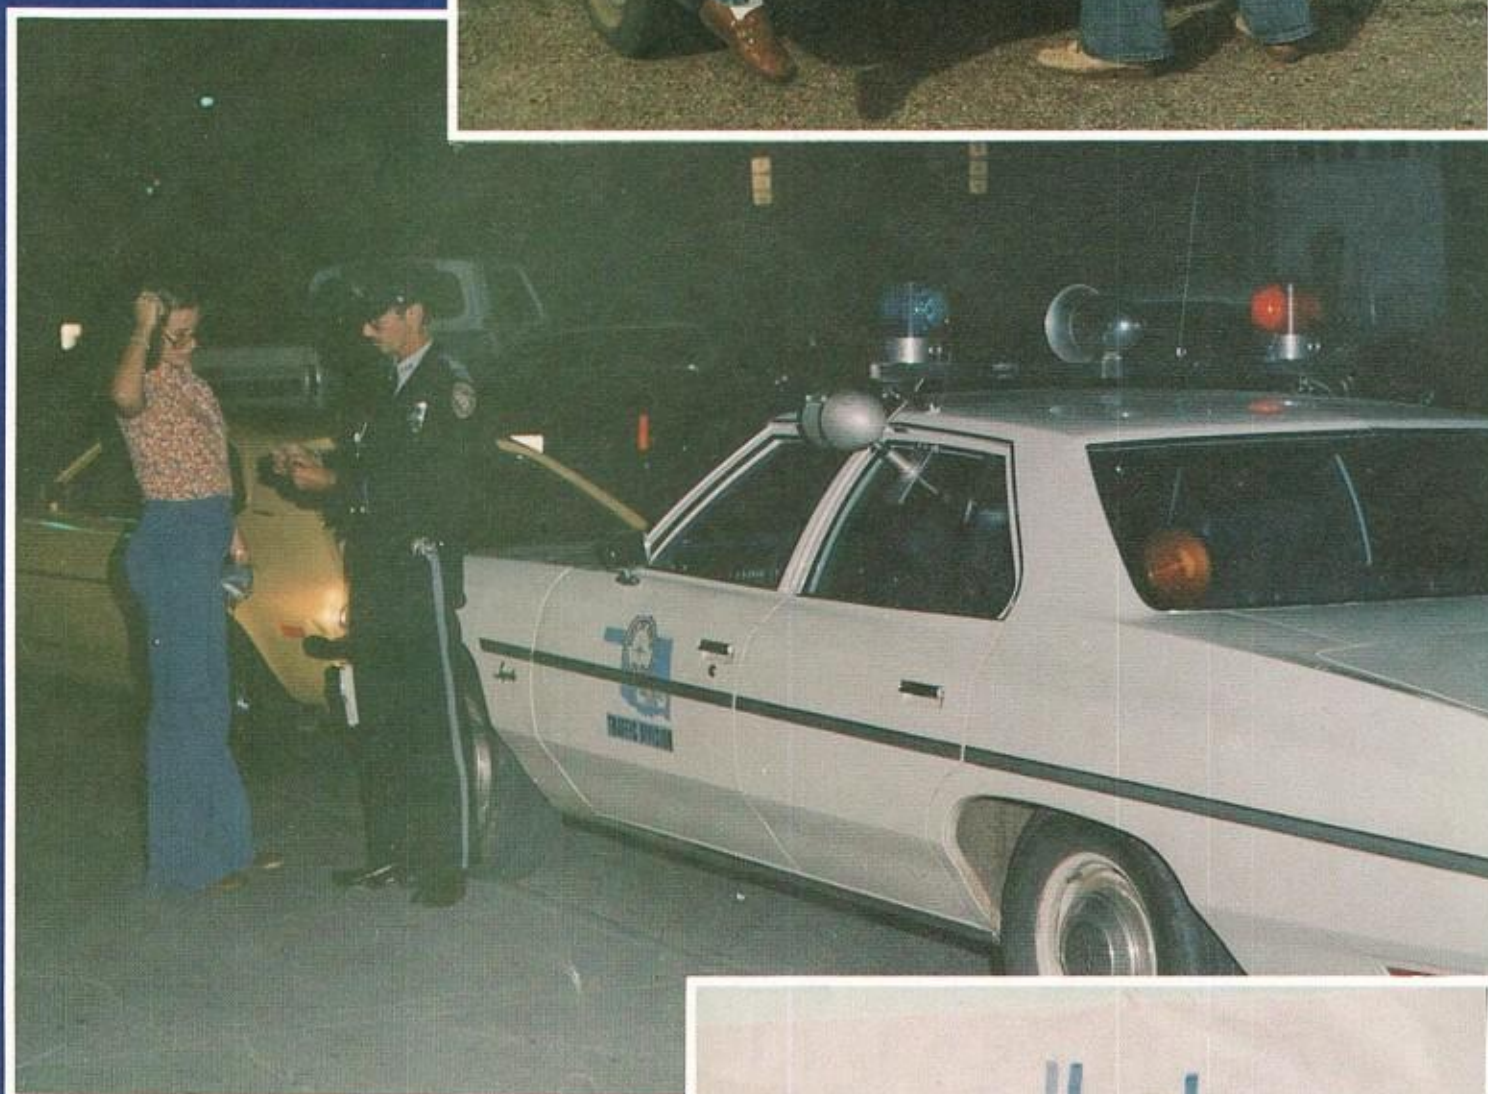

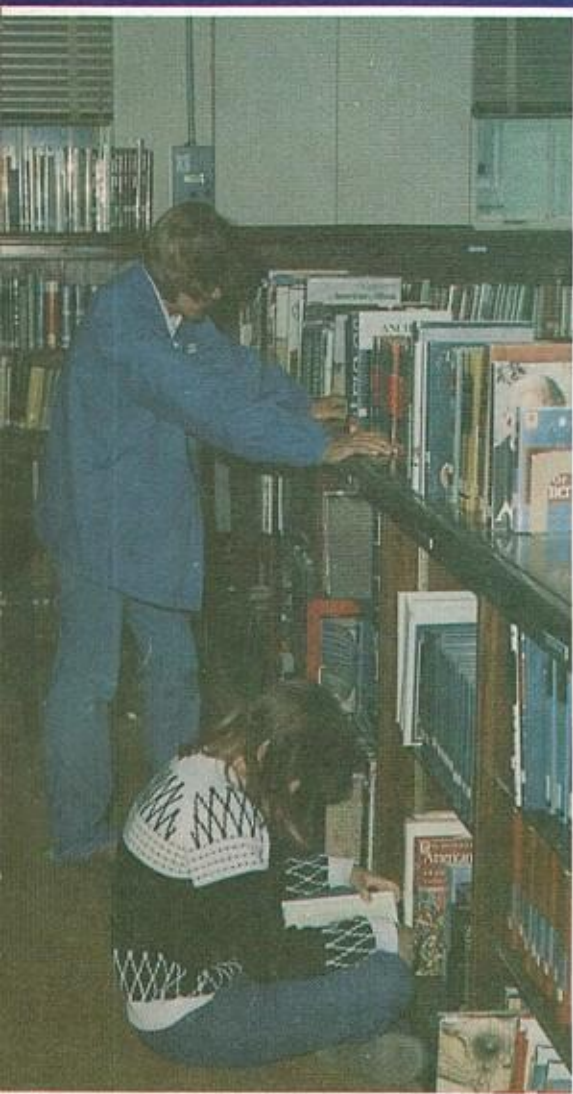

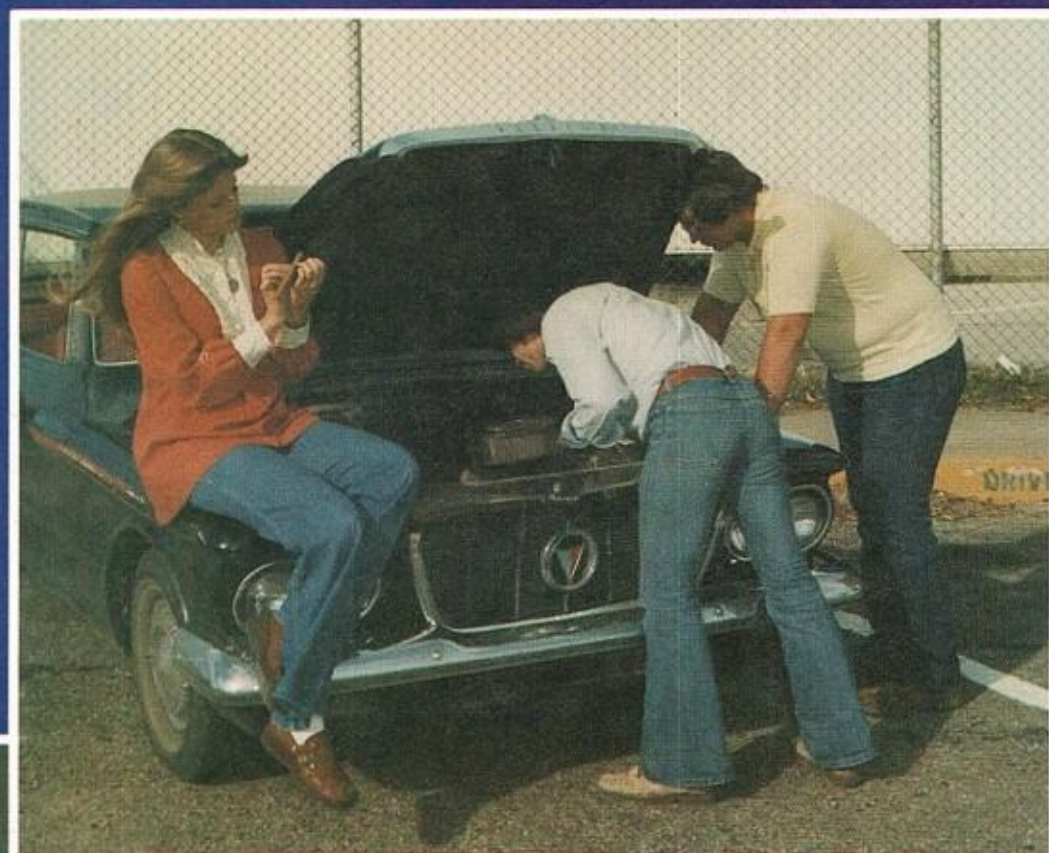

You a super sweet person and you have a GREAT personality. Stay the way you are + you will go far in life.

Have a great summer. Have fun playing softball. Just wait till our team plays you. We might win. Stay out of trouble this summer + see you next year..

Love —
Robin Bbaser

. . . No matter how the time is spent, it's all a part of Plainsmen Life

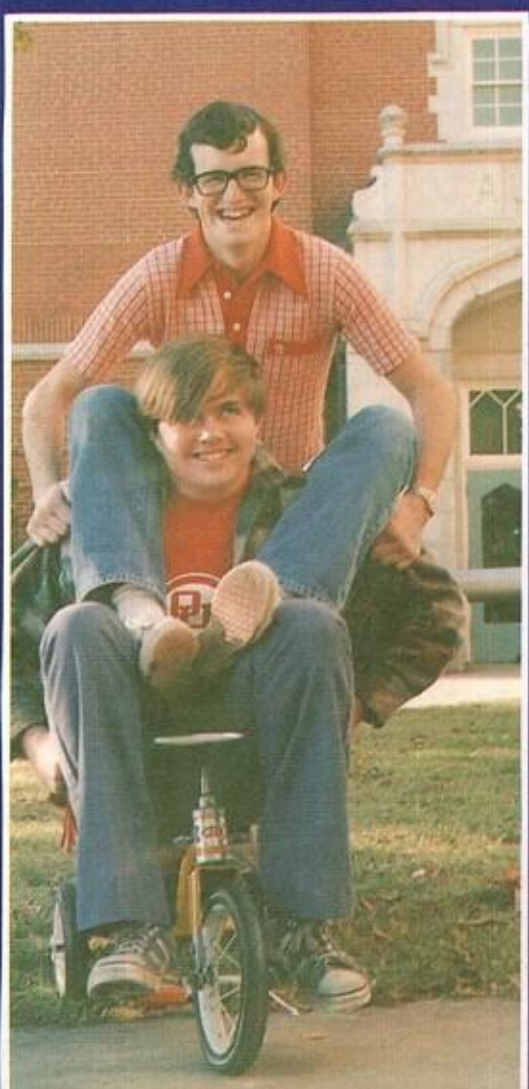

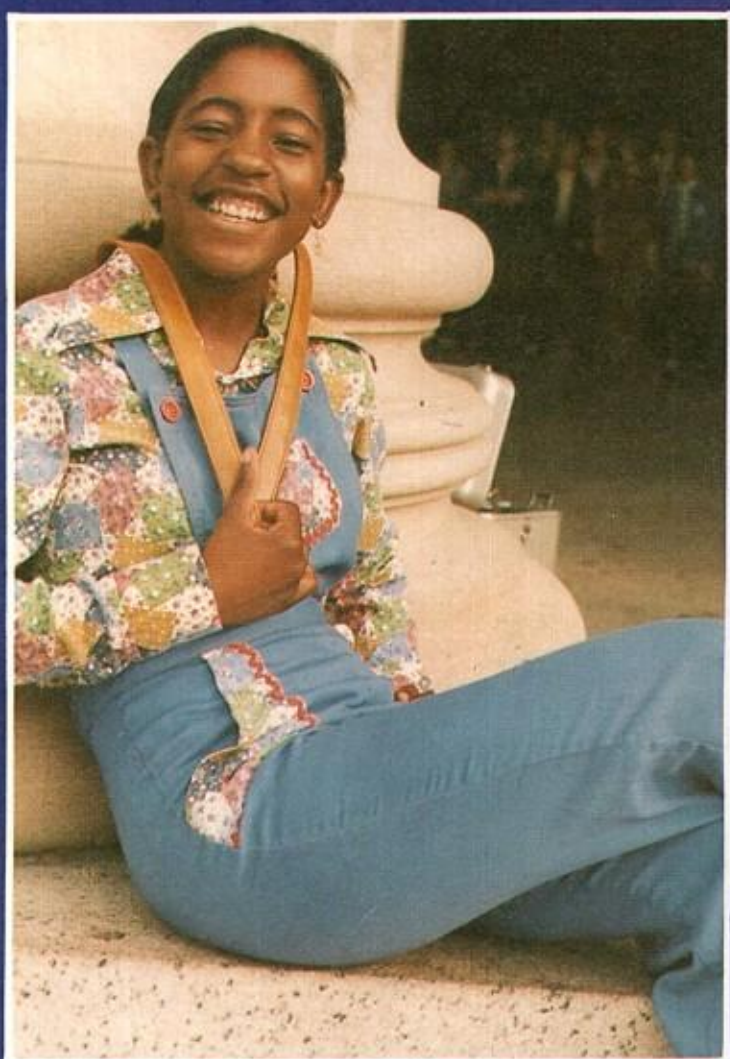

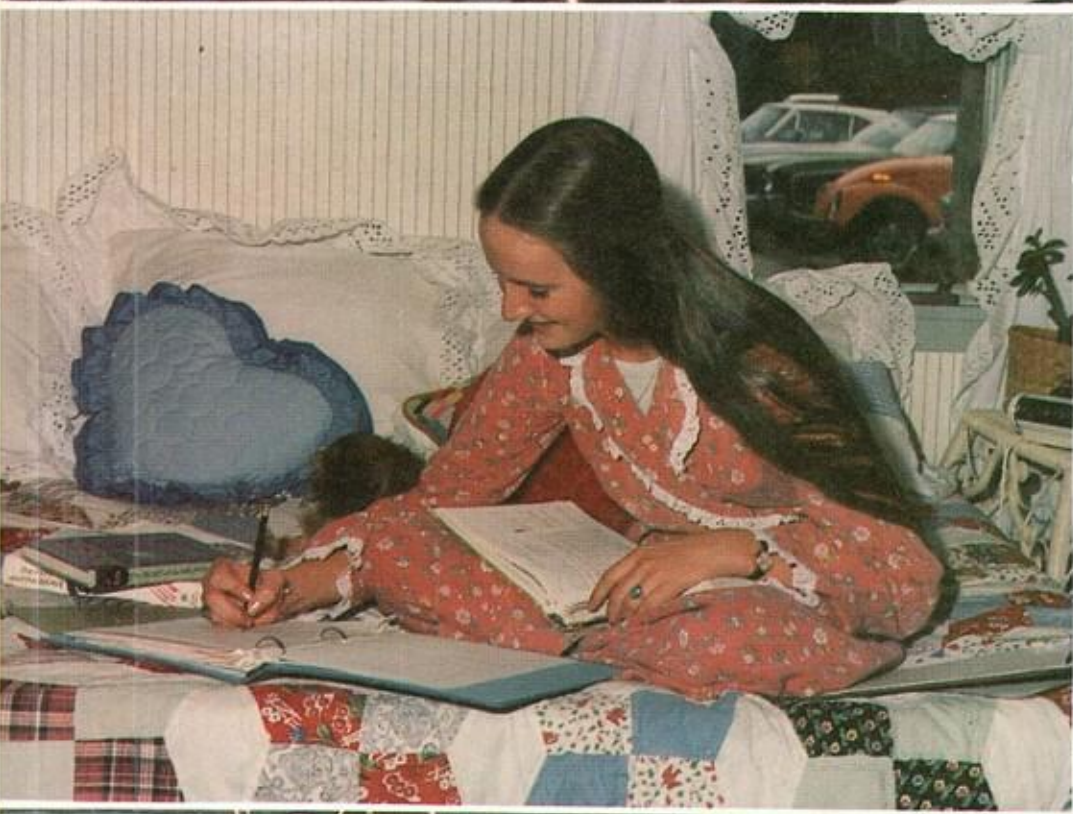

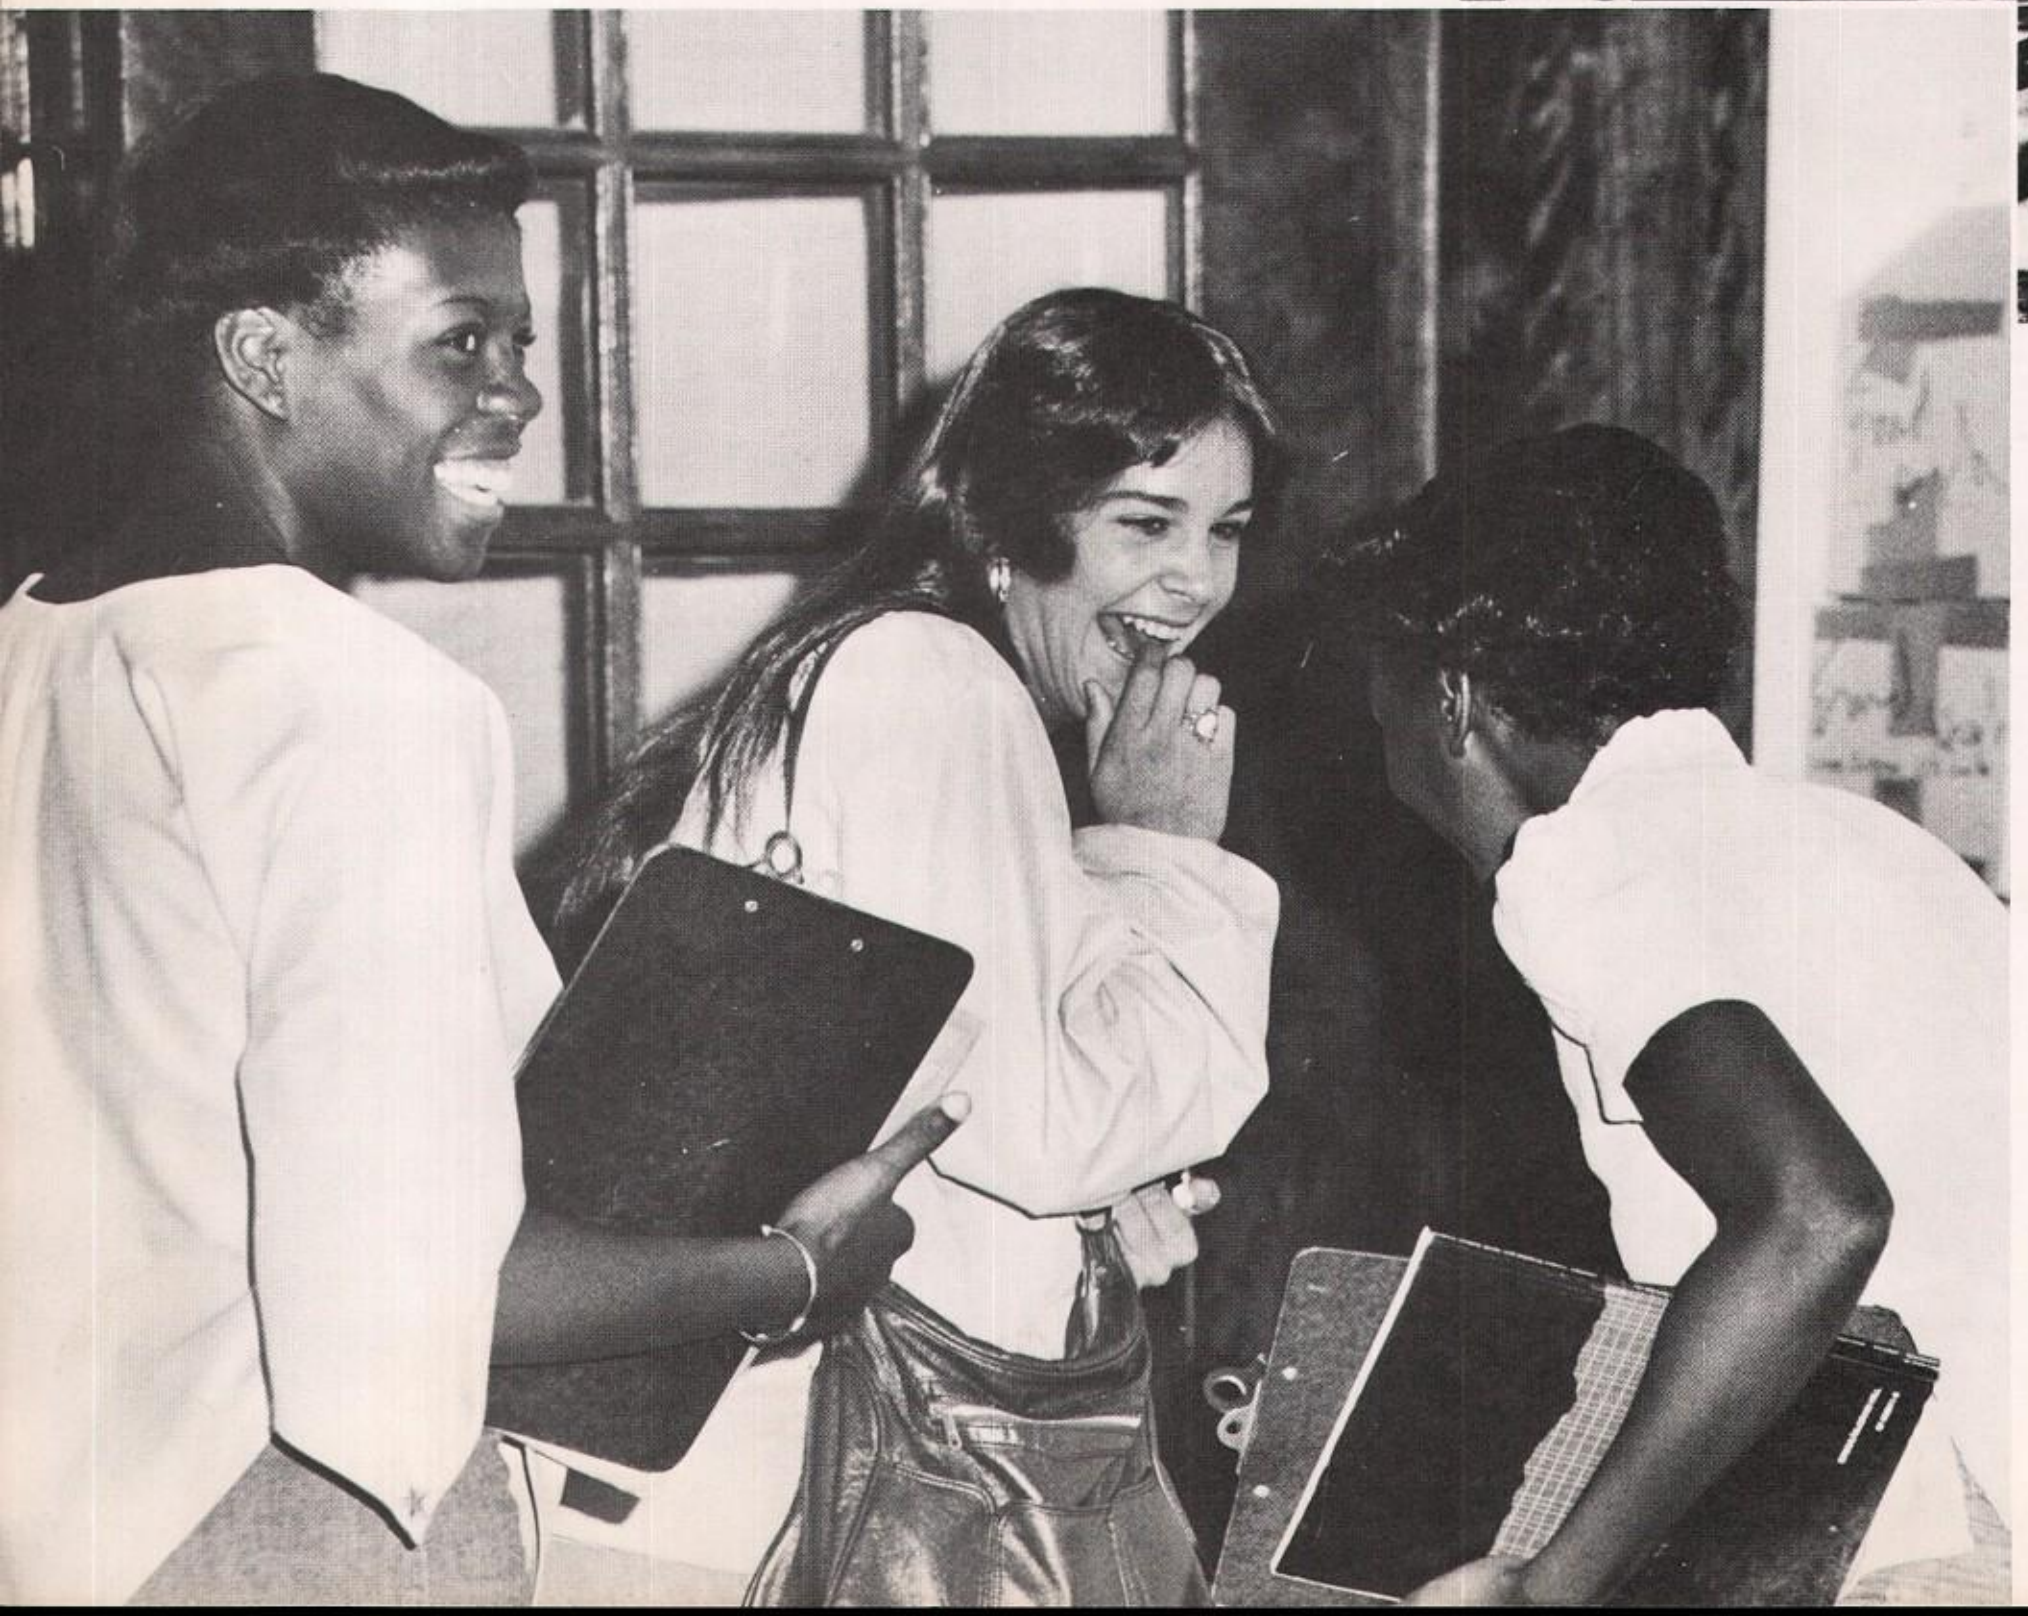

Too often the pace is too fast to see the really unique and special things that are happening around us. Too many special times are lost — tucked behind term papers, algebra tests, and stacks of books.

To each of us these moments have a different significance. If we could only stand still and just relive the times we have lost, wouldn't they be just as special when shaped into memories?

Through all the good things that have been part of this year — the people, the spirit, the traditions . . . 1977 is also a time for realizing some of the dreams that will shape separate lives . . . a year much anticipated . . . but will it be remembered?

Newspaper Staff Keeps Nose In News

Quill news staff definitely has their work cut out for the year. Not only do they have to produce a weekly newspaper, they also have the responsibility of the school news page for the Enid News and Eagle.

Outstanding performance by members was noted by OIPA awards in Sports stories, Sports columns, Editorials, Editorial Cartoon, and News writing.

The Quill staff also publishes the Senior edition to appear in the Eagle near Graduation.

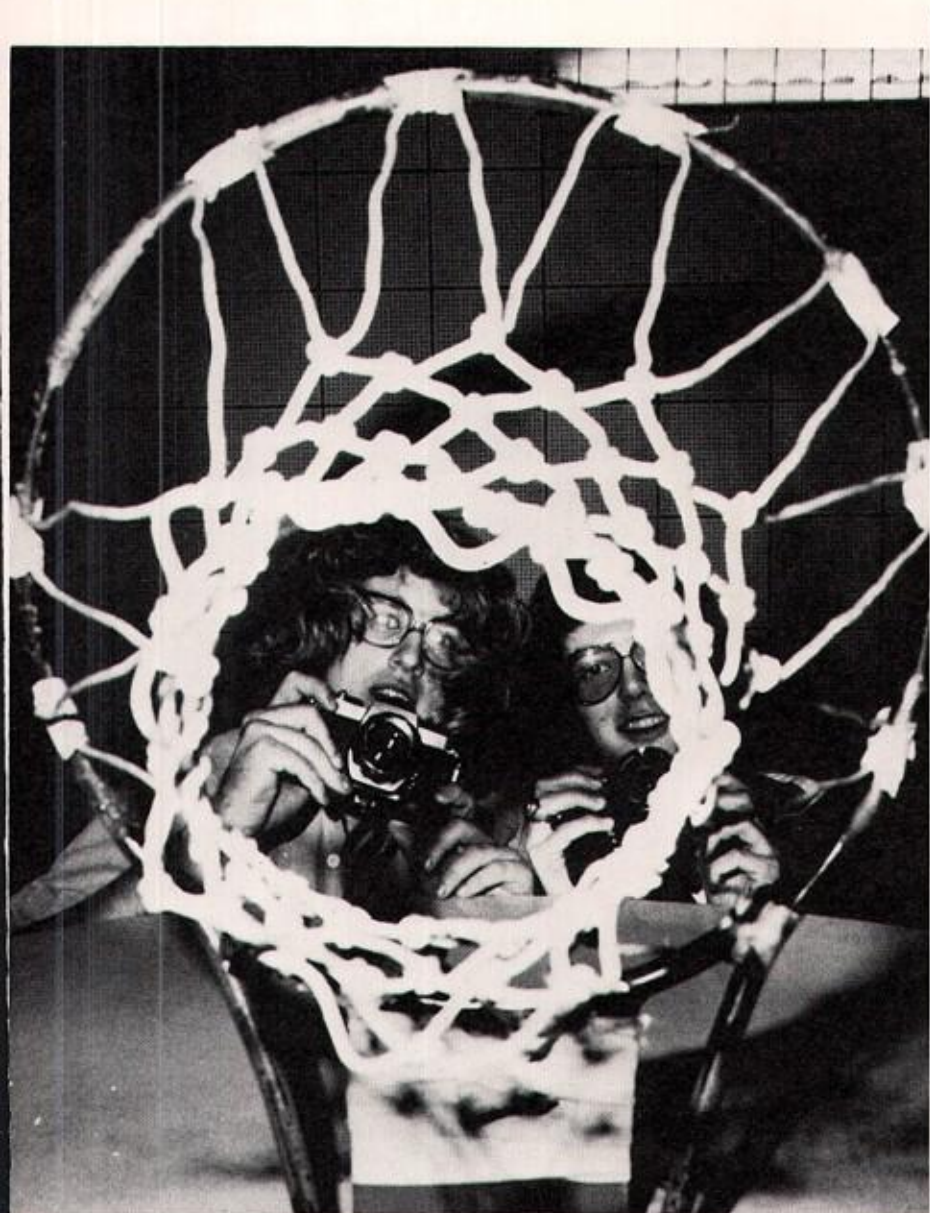

Quill photographers have been of assistance to many programs around the school.

Staff Photographer Mark Rose gets assistance from Greg Meadors in a rather unusual position.

Staff members John Mabry and Lois Toews work on headlines for the paper.

News staff members Kathy Ramos, Christy Shipley, and Kristi Nelson work on layout to beat the deadline.

Inside Look At Quill '77

And now we start our journey to the center of the yearbook staff, scoping the minds of the brilliant beings who brought you such a wonderful book of memories. The journey has brought us to a dead end; but wait, it seems we have discovered seventeen hollow passages! My goodness, it's incredible! How could they have produced such a magnificent work as Quill '77. Home now through this time zone, leaving each of you in suspense with the seventeen "UNKNOWN" mysteries of the modern world!

Audience Electrified By Energy Assembly

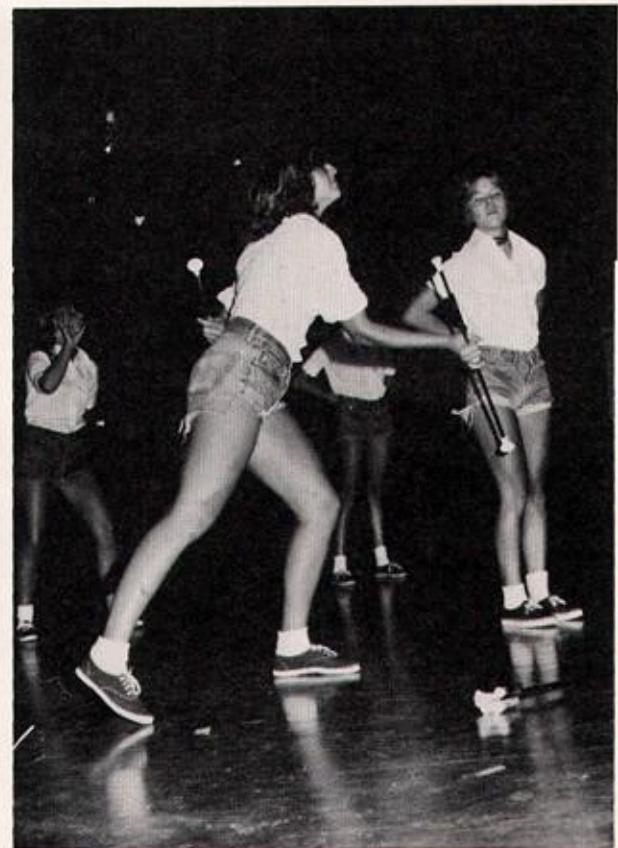

Performers Add Enthusiasm

Voices of '77 serenade homecoming candidates (left center) in the annual homecoming assembly. Sophomores get their first thrill of performing (bottom left) as they form a chorus line. Twirlers entertain (bottom right) by doing a dance routine with batons.

AT FAR LEFT — Energy assembly kept students' interest as energy-saving tips were explained.

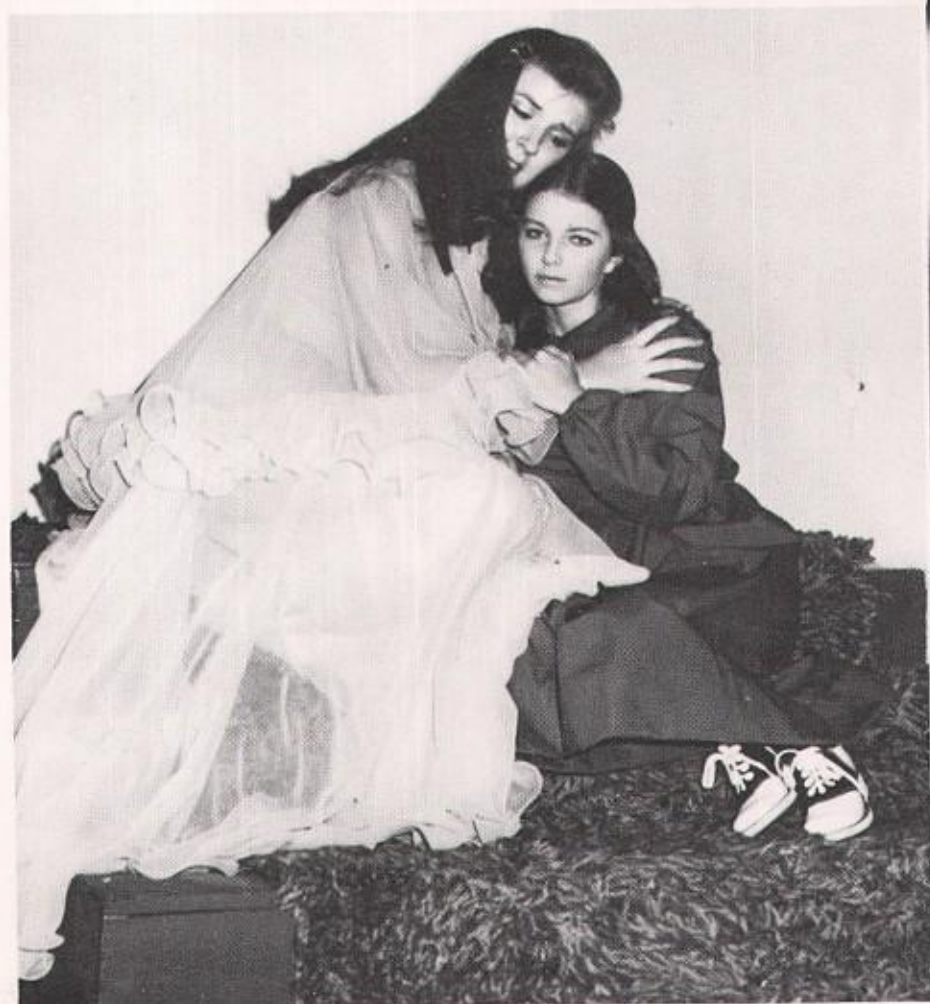

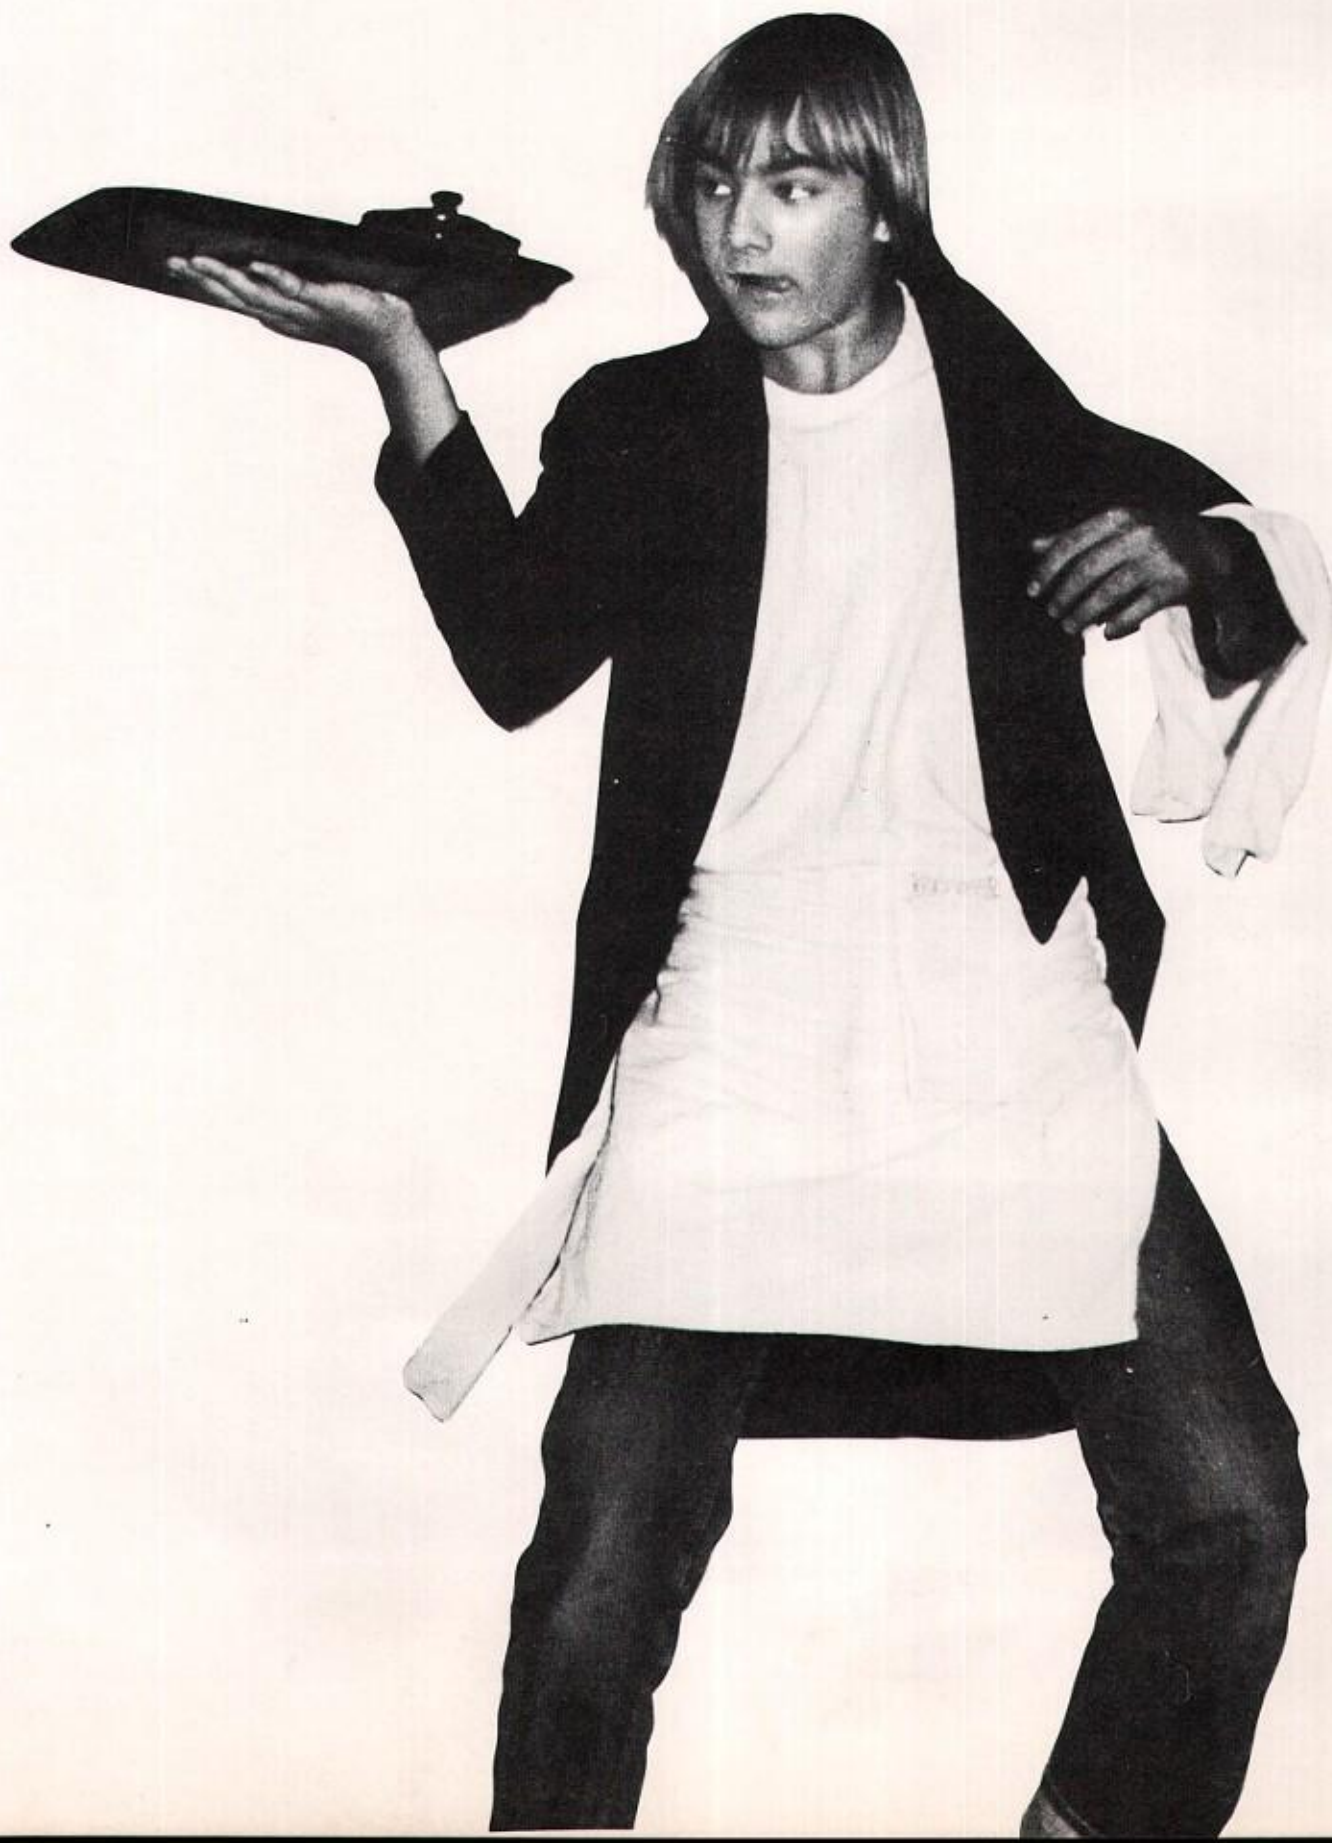

Mrs. McThing Bewitches Audience

A unique mixture of humor and hard work was put into the all-school play "Mrs. McThing" given on November 11.

The 1954 Broadway hit took on a new dimension when Tana Barnes played Howie, the male lead. A dominant character portrayal of the aristocratic mother, Mrs. LaRue, was achieved by Dana Daniels.

The Lewis sisters, friends of Mrs. LaRue, gave the scenes a humorous twist. They were portrayed by Cindy Wheeler, LeeAnn Kitzmiller, and Christy Shipley.

Coach Jim Frazier's first football season at EHS ended with a 4-7-0 record. The Big Blue, after a rather disappointing start, managed to win four of their last six games. The Plainsmen were an important factor in the Indian Nations Conference race. A near upset of Tulsa Edison and a heartbreaking loss to Tulsa Washington prevented Enid from entering the state playoffs. Four of Enid's losses came at the hands of teams that went to state. At first glance the 1976 football season can be seen as a frustrating one, but when looked at in depth, it stands as a successful year in the rebuilding of a very young team.

Plainsmen roundballers compiled a regular season record of 11-2, led by seniors Rocky Scott and play-making guard J. Holt. The Big Red turned a slow start into a 10-0 run. Head coach Alby's squad was picked for the conference championship before the season. Instead they finished second with a 7-3 league mark. Only two losses, both will losses at the hands of Tulsa and Washington, prevented a conference championship.

Big Blue Pacers lived up to their expectations this year racking up an 18-4 season record, with regionals yet to come. The girls ran away with the Indian Nations Conference Championship as they went undefeated. The 76-77 team marked the last of the original Pacers, as this year's girls were the first group Judy Hickie had coached all three years. Led by senior Shelby Sparks, who formed a three-year average of 18.6 points per game, the girls were looking toward a 3-A state championship.

Cross-country team made an excellent showing this year, wrapping up the season with 4th place in regionals.

The Harriers competed in 10 meets for the year and made good showings at each one.

Outstanding individual performances of Dan Frederick and Bryan Williams got both racers in state competition. Frederick placed 15th there.

Next year, returning lettermen Bryan Williams, Mike Zrust, and Ricky McClelland will once again start up the regular 60 miles a week practice as Coach John Clausing looks for another successful season.

Swimmers push off to a good start.

EHS diver displays perfect form.

76-77 EHS swim team was one of the strongest in years. The boys, led by seniors Steve Mitchell, Duane Angle, and Keith Kuhlman, compiled a 7-3 record on the year. Returning juniors Gary Allen and Ray Gill added the extra depth needed to make the team's year a success. Head coach Rodney Richardson and assistant Steve Riggs led them to a third place finish in the conference meet.

The girls compiled a big year also. Sophomores Kim Mitchell and Allison McCune along with junior Shannon Ford and senior Debbie Johnson all played larger roles in pacing the team to a second place finish at conference. Youth and depth could make next year's team a state champion.

EHS golf team under new head coach John Clausing was picked as a conference favorite and a state contender in 77. Facing the most difficult schedule in years, the golfers set high, yet realistic, goals in eyeing a state championship. Led by returning senior lettermen Jim King and Jon Blankenship, junior Jimmy Nickell, along with good depth provided by several younger players, the season looked promising.

And they're off!

A race against the clock.

Due to above average weather conditions in January and February, this year's EHS track teams were able to get in good preparation for their early meets. Led by a group of experienced seniors, both teams saw themselves as conference contenders. Sports writers picked them as pre-season favorites in several areas.

Campaign '76

Another election year rolled around, causing heated discussion regarding topics from Amnesty to teeth.

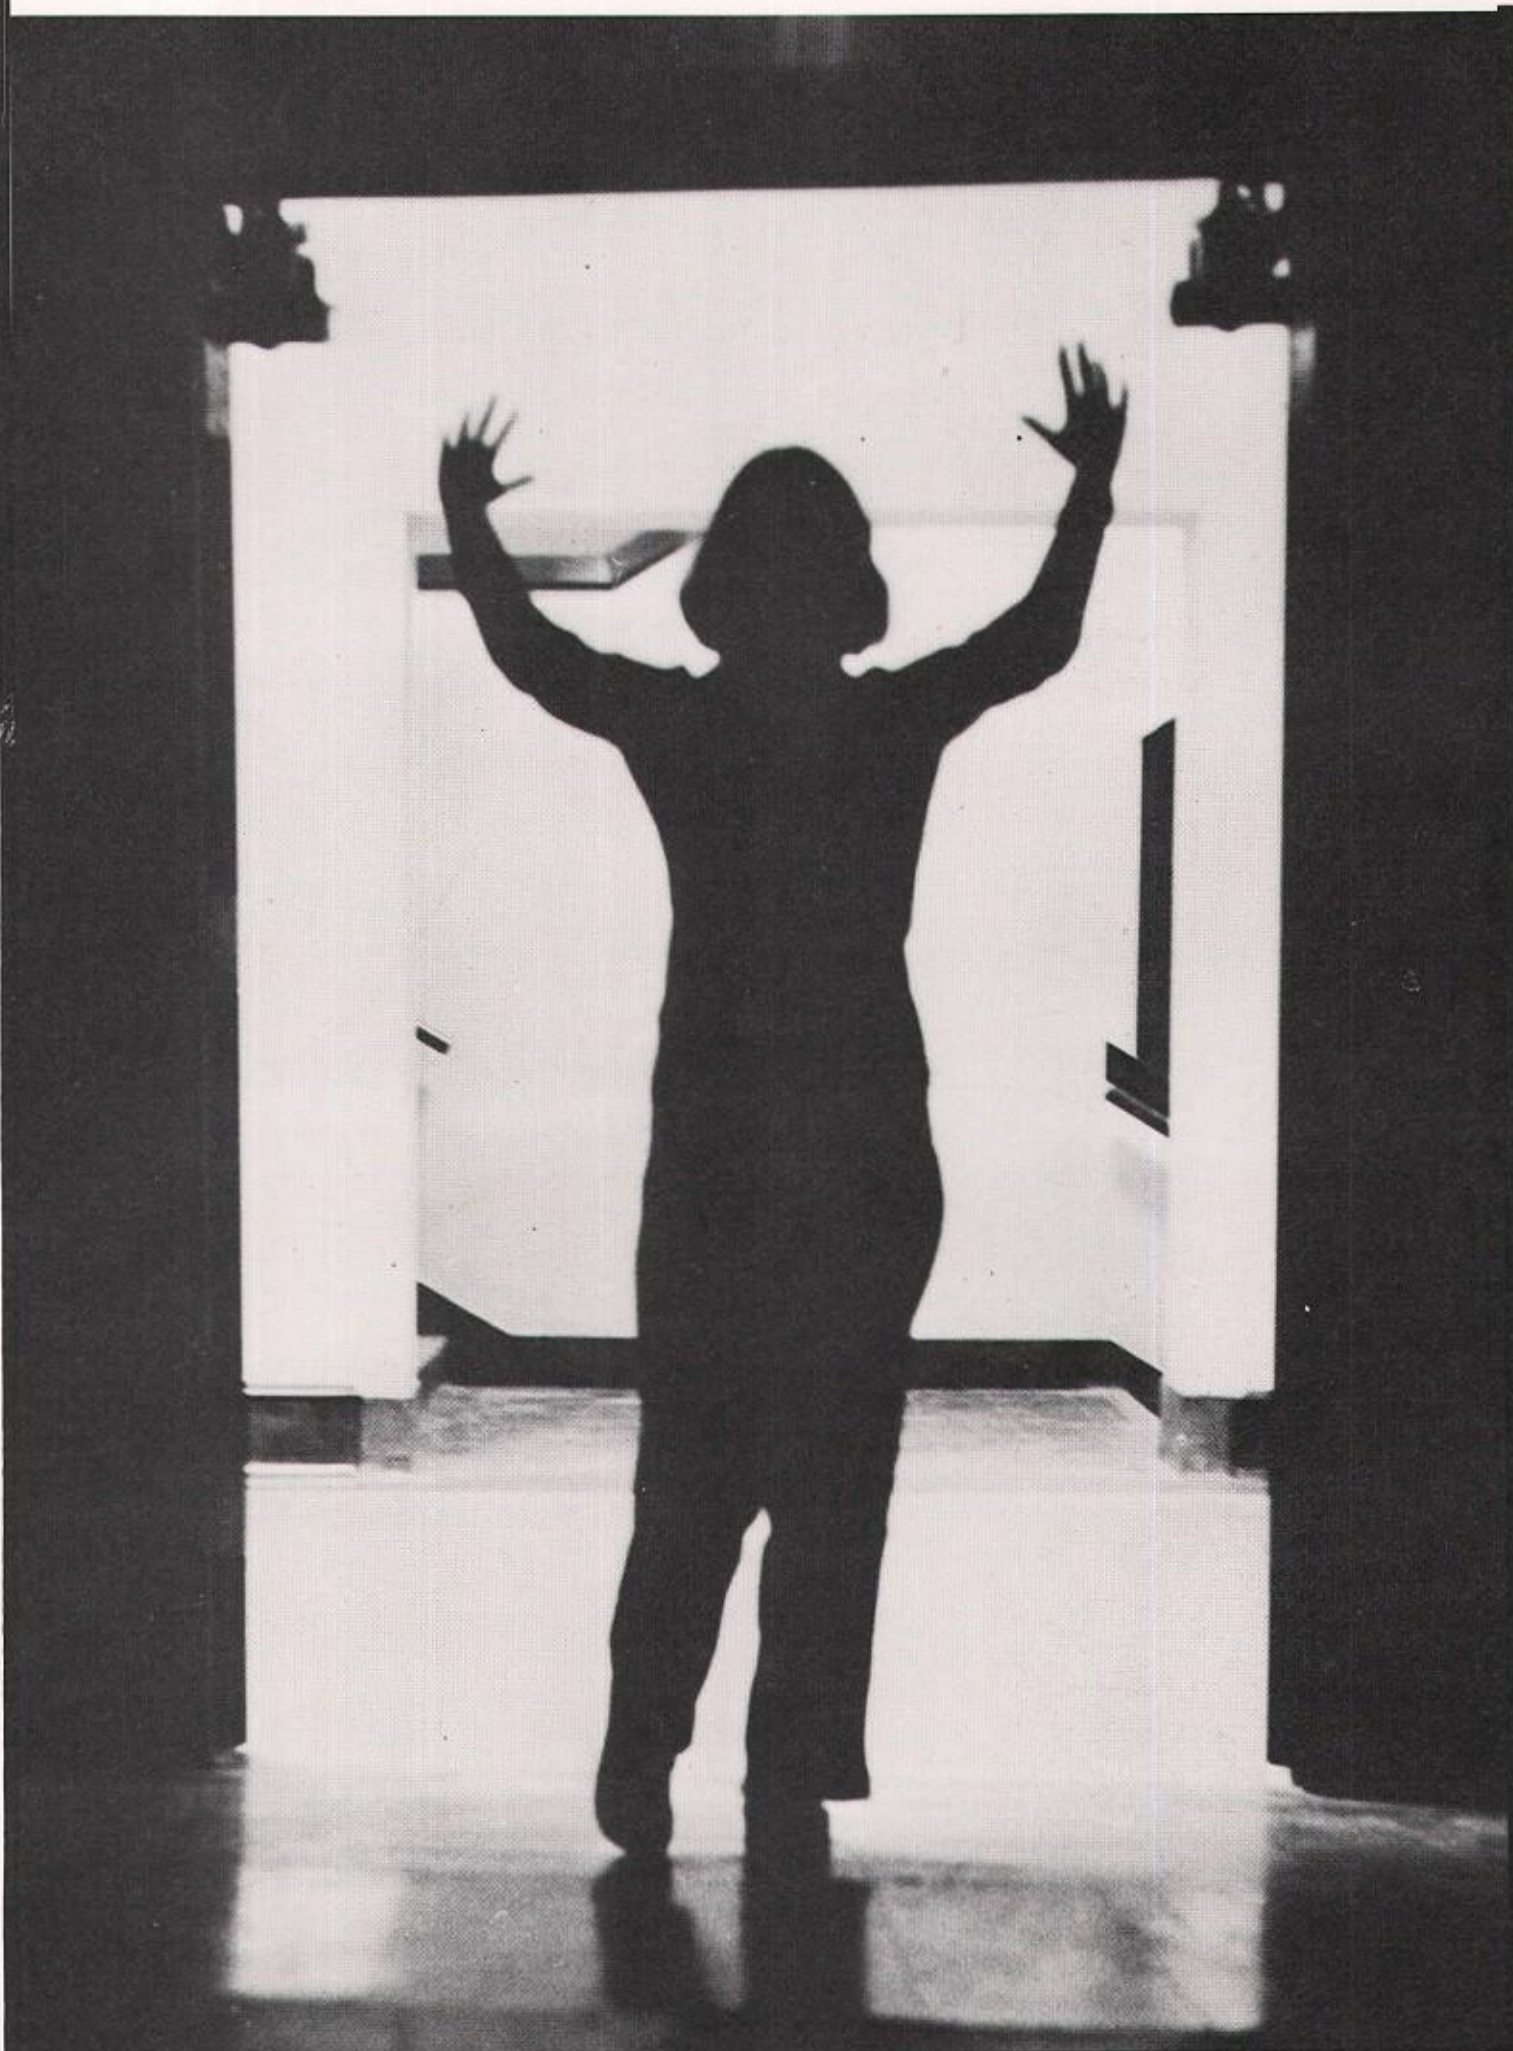

Enid High also had its own preference election this year. Students and faculty both had a good turnout for registration and the election. However the majority of the General Public didn't follow the decision EHS made.

The results of our election were heavily in favor of the Republicans.

Creativity Enlightens Student Activities

Learning by Creating. Creativity is widely apparent in Enid High School. Students use their imagination to develop skits, masterpieces, and literary wonders. Creating is important in many fields of study.

"Swine Flu"

Once again, the federal government has blossomed one of its programs to save the public-mandatorily.

The only real criticism is how long the government postponed itself from distributing the vaccine.

It makes one wonder if it is worth the megamillions it took to institute the program not to speak of congressional and executive time used to clear the road, for the cure of another 3 day illness.

Working Gives Students Confidence

Learning by Working. Students at Enid High are always learning by experience of work on projects, papers, and vocation. Helping each other also plays an important role in the development of an individual's approach to life.

Practice Makes Purfict??

Learning by practicing. It takes practice to make anything better than good. That's why one constantly sees some part of the Plainsmen public practicing daily for whatever field one is in. Whether it be drama, speech, band, orchestra, or chorus, practice is always important.

There is another shade of meaning for practice. Keeping geared for a certain objective or goal. This is another reason why school isn't a waste of time. The resources EHS offers allow a student to keep himself busy studying facts, opinions, artifacts, and histories of any topic he desires. As a result, any student can steadily learn something new every day, if he lets himself.

Test Exemptions

As a result of legislation by last year's student council, EHS students now have test exemptions based on attendance.

Some benefits achieved have been reduced skipping and tardiness on the part of the students, plus an increased dependence on daily grades instead of the high percentage final grades.

Some critics claim the results to be counterproductive, saying the exemptions cause more students on the whole to miss class, as long as they stay within the limits.

Students Open Their Eyes To Learning

Learning by observing. Observing has a main role in education of EHS students. You find observation in every department. Observing doesn't necessarily mean what you see with your eyes, it encompasses what one sees through literature, facts, experimentation, and practice.

Show Spots Enid High Entertainers

This year a change took place in the judging of the talent show. Instead of having the traditional 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place awards, first place winners were chosen from four categories. The winners were: Susie Chance in dance, Dana Daniels in vocal, LeeAnn Kitzmiller and Steve Singer in drama, and David Stocks in instrumental. David also took the overall sweepstakes trophy.

B. Britt and D. Heath bring Monty Python to EHS.

Susie Chance dances away to capture the attention of the audience.

To be a success, the annual of a school must be a student annual in which is embodied the work of all the students in school. This aim has been constantly in the minds of the members of the annual staff, in order to make the 1977 Quill Annual a successful book.

Not only is the Yearbook a seal of the happiness of the year's work and play it represents days of long hard work in order to preserve the school life. Because of the values of such a book, the effort is gladly and willingly made by the Annual staff, and advisor Jim Morris.

At last our work is finished, that of preserving our work, for you, the Memories of the school year 1976-1977.

Among the various talents of EHS accordion-playing has to be the "uniquest"!!

Imagine! Celebrities among our midst! These "Black Angels" journeyed with the rest of an Enid Gospel group to Springfield, Mo. to cut an album. A Hit? ... You Bet!!

Susan's and Lisa's fingers and talents have succeeded to "make" many musical moments in EHS history!!!

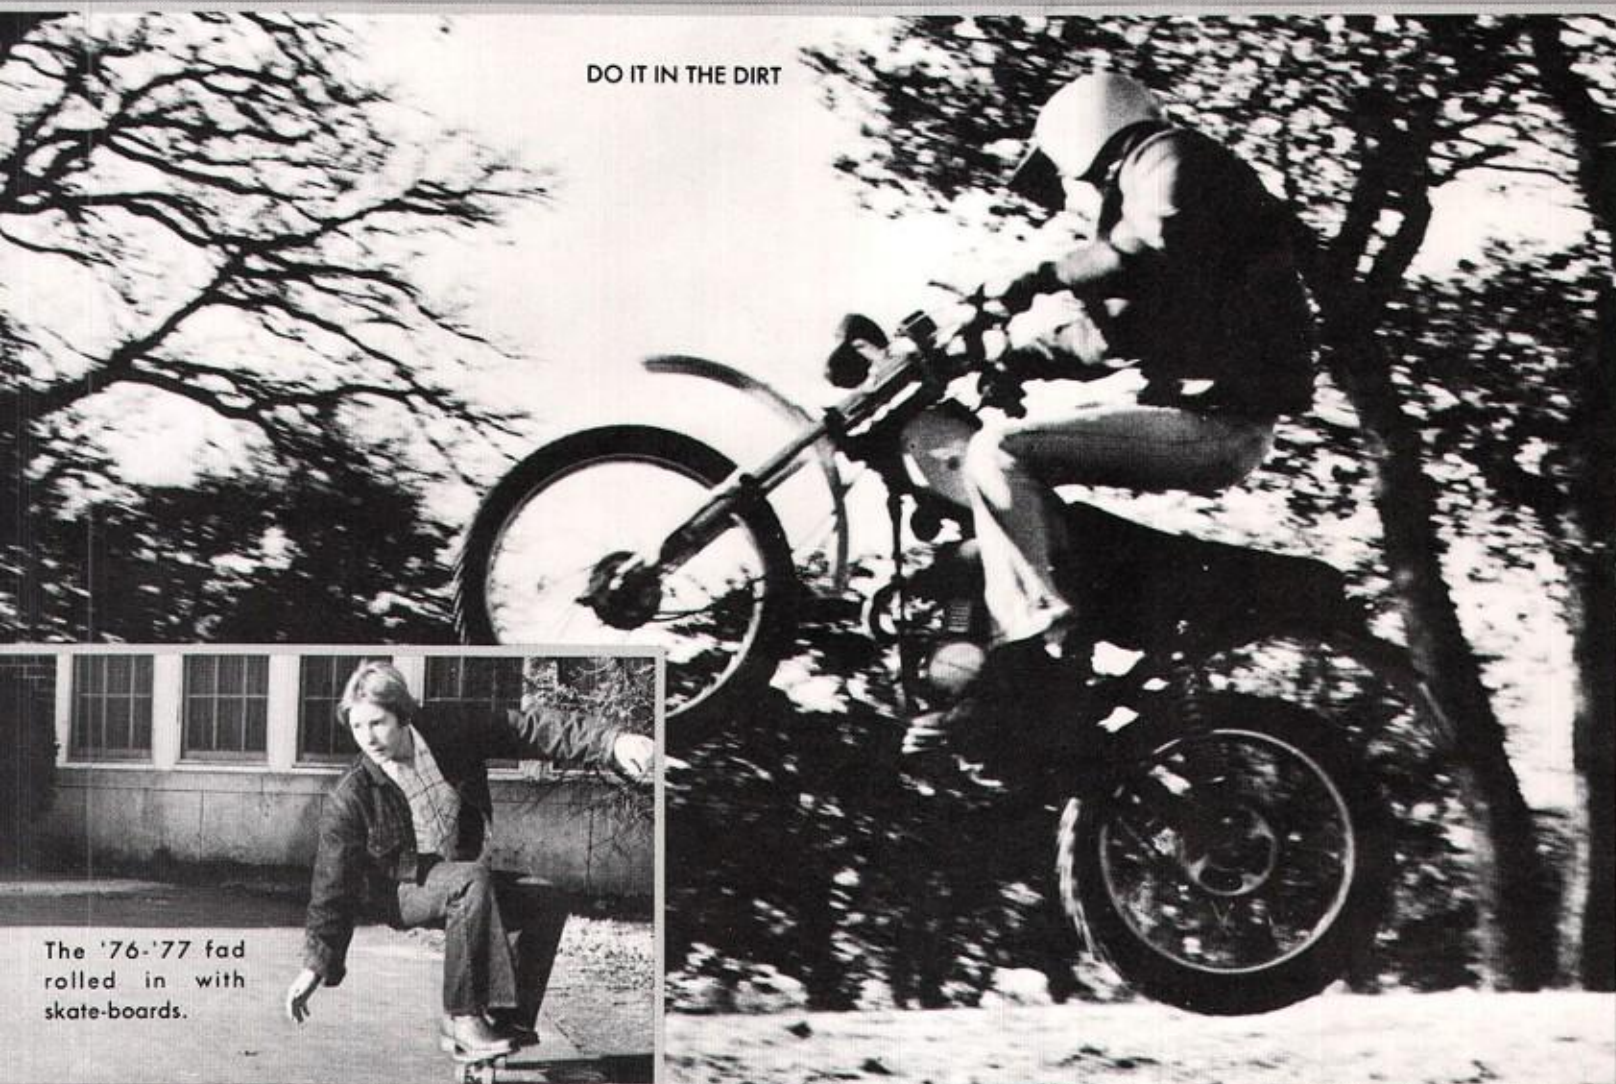

Hands express!! Tangling in jute, cloth, and brushes they create, . . . paintings, hangings, Whatever!! In front of T.V., in a studio, anywhere . . . Join Hands!!

RUN FOR YOUR LIFE

Everywhere, sneakers pound the ground, shape the ape, feed the need for fitness.

KARATE

Beware, Black belts don't always represent "jean-holder-uppers" but lethal weapons — Hands and feet flash with sharp, accurate blows and victim seldom have time to think of protection. Balance and grace deceive the deadliness of this skill . . . Karate!!

It takes a variety of individuals and interests to make a good high school even better. Enid High is that "better" school, thanks to 1,600 Plainsmen — thanks to YOU!

Kay,
 Hey, freak! (not really) What's happenin'?
 Well, I'm really glad that I got to know ya this yr. -- you're super cool & sweet. Have a great summer & stay out of trouble OK?
 Well, see ya
 Steve Conrady SP. 79

The one important ingredient that makes a high school more than an "institution" is an abundance of school spirit. Pride of the Plainsmen?

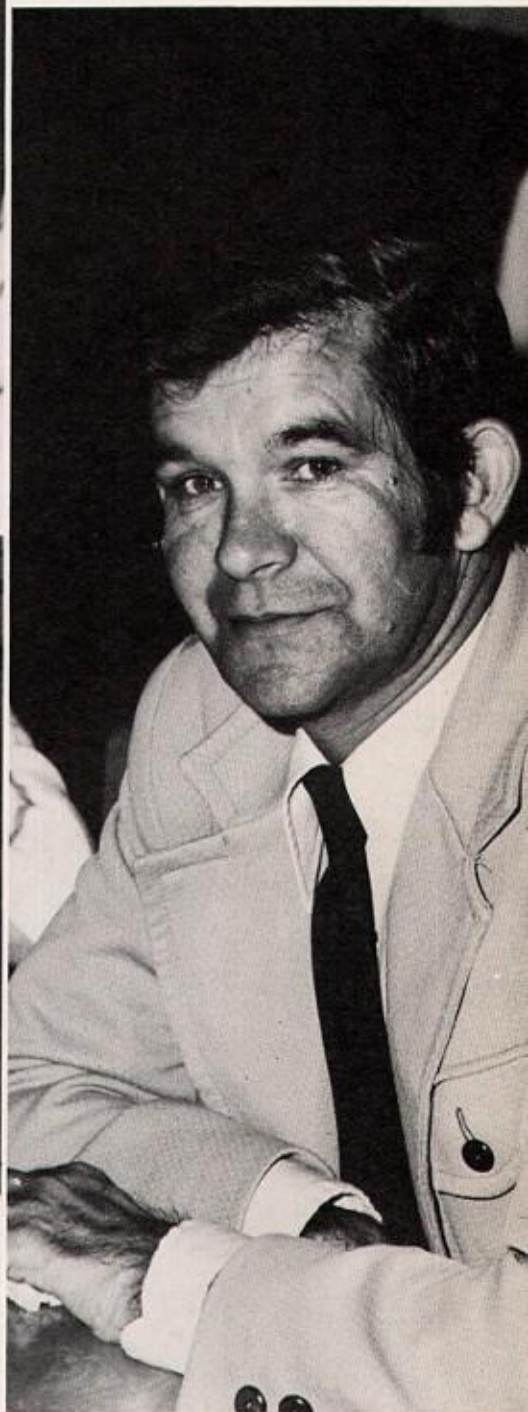

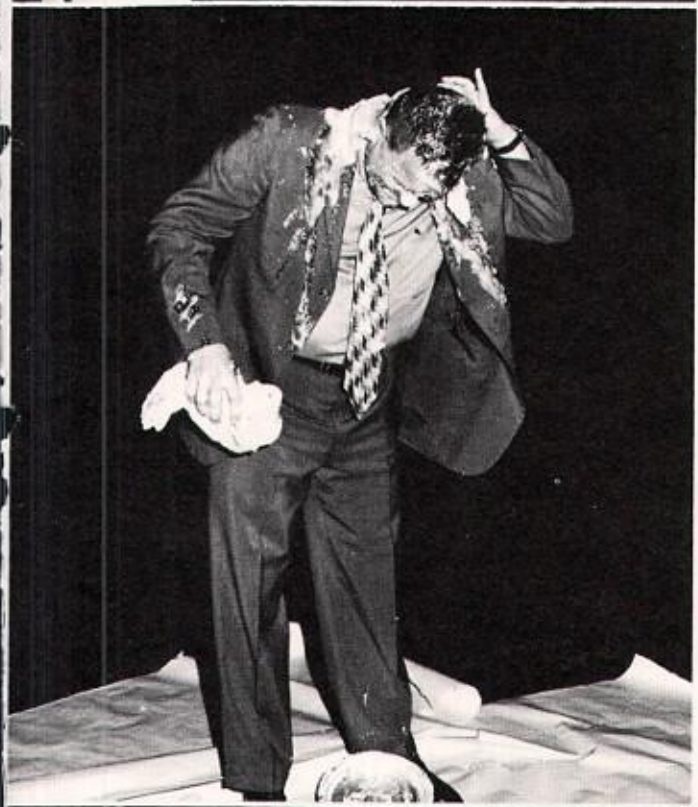

Thank you for all your effort in the steady ball show and a special thanks for the party -
